The Los Angeles Department of Transportation is pleased to announce that the National Association of City Transportation Officials (NACTO) has selected LADOT's Chief Sustainability Officer Marcel Porras for NACTO's inaugural leadership class. Leadership NACTO is a fellowship program that identifies emerging city transportation pacesetters. Twelve fellows from cities across the country including New York, Seattle, Denver, and San Francisco have been selected to participate in the 9-month program.

Porras directs the Los Angeles Department of Transportation's Shared Mobility Bureau and is the City's lead on issues involving taxis, bike share, car share, as well as preparing Los Angeles for autonomous and connected vehicles.

Please join us in congratulating him on this well-deserved opportunity!
